

JOB VACANCY

We're Hiring

The Foundation Methodist Agogic Centre (M.A.C) Early Stimulation has the following teaching vacancies for the academic school year 2026 - 2027

Teachers:

Early Stimulation Teacher/Assistant

Requirements:

- Provide early stimulation and developmental activities for young children (ages 0–4) to support cognitive, social, emotional, and physical development.
- Plan and implement age-appropriate learning activities and play-based programs.
- Observe, monitor, and document children's developmental progress.
- Identify developmental delays and work with relevant professionals when necessary.
- Create a safe, nurturing, and stimulating learning environment.
- Support children in developing language, motor, and social skills.
- Communicate regularly with parents/guardians about children's progress and provide guidance on developmental activities at home.
- Work collaboratively with teachers, therapists, and other staff members.
- Maintain accurate records and reports related to children's development.
- Follow school policies, safety regulations, and child protection guidelines.

The Foundation Methodist Agogic Centre, affectionately known as the MAC, is a foundation with a clear mission and vision designed to foster human development throughout various facets of life. The foundation is divided into three areas, pedagogic, andragogic, and gerontologic with over 45 years of rich history and dedication to the serve the children of St. Maarten, we have obtained and maintained a strong academic presence in the community as "A School of Excellence".

Your application letter, resume, copy of your diplomas, work/residence permit (if applicable) and two signed references letters addressed as stated below or emailed.

Deadline for Submission:

May 30th, 2026

 Email Your CV

Foundation Methodist
Agogic Centre
Attn: Rev. Patmore C. Henry
Chairman of the School Board

 Tel (+1 721) 542-3490

 info@macsxm.org

 #91 Backstreet, Philipsburg
St. Maarten